

Lau Bio

Michael Lau was born in York, Pennsylvania, to a Lutheran family. In 1976, two months before high school graduation he encountered Jesus Christ for the first time. While in the U.S. Navy stationed in California, in a small Holiness church Mike was baptized in the Holy Spirit and water. Him and his wife held weekly bible studies during their time in the military. He spent 45 years in the church teaching the Word of God, visiting the sick, and helping wherever possible. He has a heart for helping people in their walk with Christ.

Julie Lau was raised in a Jewish home. Both of her parents were Jewish, and she was brought up in Synagogue until she was a teenager. After turbulent teen years, she joined the U.S. Navy, where one of the sailors kept witnessing to her about Jesus. After hearing from her family quaint answers as to who He was, she decided to attend a Bible study so that she would be able to give her children a more informed answer. Little did she know what was to come. She stormed out of that first meeting when they read Psalm 22, and they said that the Psalmist was talking about Jesus. No one could explain the Hebrew at all. But...she kept coming back. When the revival came to the island she was stationed on, and the first altar call was given, she was the first to go and receive Jesus as her Savior. That was November 15, 1978. She noticed her husband shortly after that and in April of 1979 they were married. They have been through everything they vowed, better, worse, richer, poor, sickness, and health. Because of their commitment to Jesus and those vows they took; they have weathered the storms of life and want to help others do the same.
